“COMMAND ME TO COME TO YOU, WALKING ON THE WATER”

When Elijah came to Mount Horeb, the Lord spoke to him and said to him, “Stand on the mountain before his Lord; and he felt it passing in the midst of a breeze, and when he felt it, he covered his face with his mantle, and so he prepared himself at the entrance of the cave, says the book of Kings in the first reading. This passage is very important for us to know how to differentiate and feel the presence of God within us, in many ways.

After his conversion, St. Paul tells us in the second reading, he did not return to Judaism; but he did not adopt an ironic or contemptuous attitude towards them; on the contrary, he continued to be ready to give everything for those brothers who followed him and listened to his message of life. “I feel very sorry for the brothers of my race, but God is above all.”

In the story of the storm at sea, when the Lord approaches at dawn after being in deep prayer, who, walking on the water, his disciples saw him and were filled with fear; and although Jesus is performing a miracle, he is seen as a ghost. We must not confuse the supernatural with the fantastic. This Gospel story avoids any mythical aspect and narrates with extreme simplicity what is extraordinary.

In conclusion, we can say that God is not a hurricane wind, an earthquake or a fire: He is a whisper, a breeze. And Christ is recognized as the Son of God when the storm subsides. In the Eucharistic gathering we can affirm the presence of the God of Jesus Christ, enlightened by the Spirit, when we recognize the real signs of his kingship.

Homework: Today, in your life, how do you feel God’s presence... How do you speak to Him and how do you connect?

Congratulations BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, BECAUSE YOU HAVE TAKEN IN BODY AND SOUL TO HEAVEN.

A thousand blessings to all,

Father, Gabriel Jaime Toro R - Pastor

“MÁNDAME IR A TI, CAMINANDO SOBRE EL AGUA”

Cuando Elías llegó al monte Horeb, le habló el Señor y le dijo: “Ponte de pie en el monte ante su Señor; y lo sintió pasar en medio de una brisa, y al sentirla, se tapó el rostro con el manto, y así se dispuso a la entrada de la cueva, dice el libro de los Reyes en la primera lectura. Este pasaje es muy importante para que nosotros sepamos diferenciar y sentir la presencia de Dios dentro de nosotros, de muchas maneras.

Después de su conversión, San Pablo nos dice en la segunda lectura no volvió a practicar el judaísmo; pero no por eso adoptó frente a ellos una actitud irónica ni de desprecio; por el contrario, siguió estando dispuesto a darlo todo por aquellos hermanos que lo siguieron y escucharon su mensaje de vida. “Siento mucha pena por los hermanos de mi raza, pero Dios está por encima de todos”.

En la narración de la tormenta en el mar, cuando el Señor se acerca en la madrugada luego de estar en profunda oración, quien, andando sobre el agua, lo vieron sus discípulos y se llenaron de miedo; y aunque Jesús está realizando un prodigio es visto como un fantasma. No hay que confundir lo sobrenatural con lo fantástico. Este relato evangélico elude todo aspecto mítico y narra con extrema sencillez lo que no deja de ser extraordinario.

En conclusión, podemos decir que Dios no es un viento huracanado, un terremoto o un fuego: Es un susurro, es una brisa. Y Cristo es reconocido como el Hijo de Dios cuando la tempestad se calma. En la reunión Eucarística podemos afirmar la presencia del Dios de Jesucristo, iluminados por el Espíritu, cuando reconocemos los signos reales de su realeza.

Tarea: Hoy en tu vida, Cómo sientes la presencia de Dios... ¿Como le hablas y cómo nos conectamos?

Felicitaciones SANTISIMA VIRGEN MARIA, POR QUE FUE LLEVADA EN CUERPO Y ALMA AL CIELO.

Mil bendiciones para todos,

Padre, Gabriel Jaime Toro R – Pastor

OUR CHURCH'S REREDOS

The ornamental rear wall behind our Church's altar, the reredos, artistically depicts the Holy Eucharist since the Eucharistic sacrifice is the source and culmination of the whole Christian life, Such a focus is particularly appropriate for our Church which is named for the Blessed Sacrament. Thus, we see the design of a monstrance, that sacred vessel used by the Church for the solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. At the center is the Lamb of God, Jesus the Christ, who offered himself in sacrifice on Calvary to free us from sin. The vine and grape design emanating from the Lamb is intended to fix our attention on the elements of the Eucharistic Sacrifice in which bread and wine are changed into Christ's Body and Blood, making present on the altar the sacrifice of Calvary. Surrounding the Lamb of God are the symbols which identify the various Apostles to whom Jesus gave the command: "Do this in memory of me". Beginning at the top and counting counter clockwise we have:

1. The keys which identify Peter and the authority entrusted in him by Jesus;
2. Pilgrim's staff and wallet for St. James the Great;
3. The chalice out of which issues a serpent for St. John the Apostle and Evangelist;
4. Two crossed fishes which are the shield of St. Andrew;
5. A basket and Tau cross, the symbol of St. Philip;
6. A branch of a fig tree symbolizing St. Bartholomew;
7. A carpenter's square together with a spear and four arrows for St. Thomas who was put to death;
8. A windmill for St. James the Less;
9. Three money bags symbolizing St. Matthew, the tax collector;
10. A boat which commemorates the many missionary journeys of St. Jude;
11. A sword and mace symbolizing how St. Simon was martyred;
12. A book and saber for St. Matthias who was chosen to succeed Judas Iscariot, the betrayer.
