PASTOR'S desk

“HE WILL LEASE THE VINEYARD TO OTHER HUSBANDMEN”

In the language of a song of human love the prophet speaks of God’s love for his people. Like a worker who devotes all his care to his vineyard, and it does not give him the expected fruit. Isaiah tells us the story of God’s relationship with his people as the story of an unrequited love: Israel is the vineyard that the Lord takes care of with delicacy and that yields sour grapes instead of good grapes. It is the same story that Psalm 79 reminds us of: come and visit your vineyard, the vine which your right hand planted and which you made vigorous.

The Gospel maintains the image of the vineyard, now with the novelty that it is presented as the Kingdom given to the people of Israel. Unfortunately, this people does not bear the expected fruits; on the contrary, it mistreats and murders those sent by God, ending with its own Son. Paul, witness of the new and eternal covenant, encourages the Philippians to open themselves to the love of the God of peace by living as true disciples of Christ.

This Sunday’s parable teaches us that we should not live in a false religious security because we are members of the Lord’s vineyard. Just because we belong to the Lord’s vineyard does not mean that we are already living according to his will. As the Jewish leaders did not know how to recognize the cornerstone, the Kingdom will be given to a new people, no longer the twelve tribes of Israel, but the twelve Apostles, the new Israel: the Church, which will recognize in Jesus its cornerstone and which will bear the fruits of the Kingdom.

Today’s Gospel message is not a thing of the past. It challenges us all as members of the believing people, as a new vineyard that God continues to care for with infinite tenderness. We thank God for his faithfulness and patience with us and we ask his forgiveness because on many occasions we do not bear the fruits of the Kingdom that he expects. For reflection: “the stone that the builders rejected”, do the men and women of our society recognize Jesus as the cornerstone of their lives? and you? “he will rent the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the fruits in due season”, what are those fruits that correspond to the Kingdom of God? in what way are our Church and our communities responding to God’s commission?

The new wine, the fruit of God’s vineyard, is the blood of Jesus Christ. To the extent that we receive communion from the Eucharist, we are living branches grafted onto the vine, which is the Lord.

With my affection and my blessing,
Father, Gabriel Jaime Toro R. Pastor

Desde el Escritorio del PÁRROCO

“ARRENDARÁ LA VIÑA A OTROS LABRADORES”

En el lenguaje de un canto de amor humano habla el profeta del amor de Dios a su pueblo. Como un obrero que dedica todos sus cuidados a su viña, y ésta no le da el fruto esperado. Isaías nos cuenta la relación de Dios con su pueblo como la historia de un amor no correspondido: Israel es la viña que el Señor cuida con delicadeza y que da agradaciones en vez de buenas uvas. Es la misma historia que el Salmo 79 nos recuerda: ven a visitar tu viña, la cepa que tu diestra plantó y que Tú hiciste vigorosa.

El Evangelio mantiene la imagen de la viña, ahora con la novedad que se presenta como el Reino entregado al pueblo de Israel. Lastimosamente este pueblo no da los frutos esperados, por el contrario, maltrata y asesina a los enviados de Dios, terminando con su propio Hijo. Pablo, testigo de la nueva y eterna alianza, anima a los filipenses a abrirse al amor del Dios de la paz viviendo como verdaderos discípulos de Cristo.

La parábola de este domingo nos enseña que, no debemos vivir en una falsa seguridad religiosa por ser miembros de los labradores de la viña del Señor. No por el hecho de pertenecer a la viña del Señor ya estamos viviendo según su voluntad. Como los dirigentes judíos no supieron reconocer la piedra angular, el Reino se entregará a un nuevo pueblo, no ya las doce tribus de Israel, sino los doce Apóstoles, el nuevo Israel: la Iglesia, que reconocerá en Jesús a su piedra angular y que dará frutos propios del Reino.

El mensaje del Evangelio de hoy no es cosa del pasado. Nos cuestiona a todos como miembros del pueblo creyente, como nueva viña a la que Dios sigue cuidando con infinita ternura. Damos gracias a Dios por su fidelidad y su paciencia con nosotros y le pedimos perdón porque en muchas ocasiones no damos los frutos del Reino que Él espera.

Para reflexionar: “la piedra que desecharon los constructores” ¿los hombres y mujeres de nuestra sociedad reconocen a Jesús como la piedra angular de sus vidas? ¿y tú?; “arrendará la viña a otros labradores que le entreguen los frutos a su tiempo” ¿cuáles son esos frutos que corresponden al Reino de Dios? ¿de qué manera están respondiendo nuestra Iglesia y nuestras comunidades al encargo de Dios?

El vino nuevo, fruto de la viña de Dios, es la sangre de Jesucristo. En la medida que comulgamos de la Eucaristía, como sarmientos vivos injertados en la cepa, que es el Señor.

Con mi cariño y mi bendición,

Padre, Gabriel Jaime Toro R. Pastor
